

UP-TO-DATE

SPORTING EDITOR'S COLUMN.

THE horse shoe up to date. It was seen Saturday night at the boxing stage of the Metropolitan A. C. Frank McCormack, who was scheduled to box with "Jig" Stone, had it in his glove. Instead of iron it was made of pressed lead over which was electric tape. It was shaped to cover his knuckles in the fashion and it weighed at least one-sixteenth of a pound. A punch on the face would have not only knocked his opponent dead, but, to say the least, might have also broken his jaw.

Stone was tipped off about the hand-covering, and when McCormack came into the ring he insisted on examining the gloves. This showed up the leaden bandage. The crowd on hand was made aware of the situation quickly, and they shouted to the referee to throw him out of the ring.

McCormack has been knocking his opponents out regularly lately and had acquired quite a reputation up to Saturday night.

Stone went on with Mike Moran subsequently and felled him easily in the first minute. Many of those present felt that he could have done the same with McCormack, lead and all. If the lead substitute hadn't been discovered.

JACK CHESBRO has made good. His pitching against the ex-champion Bostonians in the opening game was of the A1 variety. He never lost confidence throughout the long-drawn-out contest, and easily maintained his reputation for being one of the best box performers in the business. New York fans like a winner, particularly if the winner is representative of New York. Nothing could have made this more evident than the thunderous cheers at American League Park when the score board announced the Giants' victory in Philadelphia. Here were 20,000 open-air enthusiasts shouting their lungs out for the Highlanders' success who momentarily forgot their surroundings and long and loudly voiced their appreciation of the McGrawites' victory over the Slowville diamond warriors.

THE following letter intimates that the writer of this column doesn't write his comments on facts. Here is the letter:

To the Sporting Editor of The Evening World:

I hope you will excuse me for correcting your article on Tommy Murphy's trip to Bermuda. I wish you state he fought and knocked out three members of the British squad. The fact of the matter is that he did not fight any one while in Bermuda. A fight was arranged by a fellow named Hamilton. Murphy was promised $150 for his end, but when Hamilton was asked by Murphy to show the money before the fight said Hamilton was unable to do so. The result was there was no fight. Hoping you will print this correction, I am yours, etc.

HUGH HARDWICK.
No. 41 West Forty-eighth street,
April 15.

I answer it may be said that Tommy Murphy did knock out three men, as was stated. The bouts were not real fights, still they terminated in knockouts. They were more of the exhibition order, perhaps a half-dozen or more being present, but the fact remains that the bouts were real and his knockout record was as originally stated. For further particulars the letter writer should consult with Johnny Oliver at the Polo A.

"B" UY a house in the country if you want to know what living is. That's what your country friends tell you. Yours truly spent a day in the country yesterday, and listened to some sports people who boomed the country living, but who had not converted Long Island and its Jericho road are very fine, but aside from making a most miserable place for training purposes its attractiveness is lost on a New Yorker who likes to circulate about the world. Sporting news would be hard to gather along the Jericho road.

VINCENT TREANOR.
During the absence of ROBERT EDGREN with the American team at the Olympic games in Athens, Greece, the evening world will be edited by Vincent Treanor. Communications regarding sports should be addressed to him, care of The Evening World, Pulitzer Building, Park Row.

GAELIC FOOTBALL CARNIVAL.

The Westmeath Men's Association will hold a football carnival at Celtic Park Sunday afternoon. The proceeds of which will be used for the restoration of Ireland's oldest abbey, Mullaghmusk. There will be three games. Cavan will meet Mayo in the opening struggle and the other games will bring together Leitrim vs. Waterford and Queens County vs. Westmeath.

Joe Gans Can Make 133 Pounds.

That Joe Gans, the legitimate light-weight and welterweight champion, can make 133 pounds was given a few days ago at Seattle, Wash. His manager, Johnny Kelly, of Fresno, proved it by having Gans fight a twenty-round bout at a boxing club in that city. Gans, who is now on his way to a fight with either Fitting Nelson or Tony Britt.

FIGHTS TO-NIGHT.

At the Navarre A. C. Forty-second street and Eighth avenue, there will be between "Blink" McCloskey and Tommy Connolly. In the other bouts Willie Marshall vs. Benny Riley, Young Frenchy vs. Charlie Goldman, George Holliday vs. "Baby" Calley, George Day vs. Howard Smith and two other contests between evenly matched boxes.

SPORTING NEWS AND COMMENT

METROPOLITAN RACING SEASON OPENED TO-DAY AT AQUEDUCT

"MUDDERS" WALLOW IN TRIALS AT SHEEPSHEAD TRACK

The Picket Arrives from Louisville and Looks Fit for Fast Going.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SHEEPSHEAD BAY TRACK, April 15.—Training operations at the Bay course this morning were of the restricted order by reason of the track condition. It was particularly sloppy from the hard rain of Sunday and most of the races shown were only asked routine exercises.

Trainer Carroll B. Reid, in charge of six racers of the Waldeck Stable arrived from Louisville, Ky., during the early morning. All of the horses stood the trip well, and there was not a single case of indisposition among them. The string was headed by the six-year-old handicapper candidate, The Picket, who looks in a well-advanced training condition. In fact, reports from Kentucky state that the Brooklyn Handicap winner of two seasons back has wintered exceptionally well and all moves asked of him this spring have given the greatest satisfaction to his trainer.

None of his old ailments which put him on the shelf last season bothered him a bit, and his trainer has every confidence that he will develop into as good a six-year-old as he was at four, when he defeated Irish Lad on the post for the Brooklyn Handicap. The balance of the lot were composed of Bayonet, Rose of Gold and the two-year-old Ben Trovato, a likely-looking brown colt by Falsetto, and two other youngsters, of which their trainer has great hopes.

Brown String Good.

Trainer Bob Tucker was busy with the youngsters of the W. Henry Brown lot. In two sets he brought them to the barrier for schooling, and from the ready manner in which they took to their lesson pronounced them well adjusted to the art of leaving the starting post.

The best gallops shown were as follows:
DELMORE—Six furlongs in 1:23, breezing. Has been racing all winter at New Orleans.
BENNY—Three furlongs in 0:41, galloping. A filly who distinguished herself at New Orleans.
AGILE—Three furlongs in 0:44, breezing. Going along satisfactorily in his training.

JOHN GUNTANT—Three furlongs in 0:43, galloping. All that was asked of him in the bad going.
KING HENRY—Three furlongs in 0:44, very easily. Like his stable mate, Accountant, his exercises were of the routine kind, but he was very well.

VITTESSE—A half mile in 0:57, breezing. Very ordinary.
DELSZKE—Three furlongs in 0:44, galloping. The old warrior looks well.
SWEET VERA—Three furlongs in 0:42, galloping. Another New Orleans performer.

TOMAHAWK—Four furlongs in 0:53, breezing. Good galloping.

HEROSA—Five furlongs in 1:14, galloping. Under wraps all the way.

GOLDEN GIRL—Three furlongs in 0:42, galloping. A promising filly of Senator McGraw's.

Bert T. Is Fast.
BERT T.—Four furlongs in 0:53, handily. Good galloping.

GLORIE—Three furlongs in 0:42, galloping. A very good galloper.

MONTEREY—Three furlongs in 0:41, galloping. Appears to be good.

KING—A half mile in 0:51, galloping. A very good galloper.

THE STUDENT—A quarter in 0:21, galloping. A very good galloper.

ATWOOD—Three furlongs in 0:42, galloping. A very good galloper.

GRAVESEND GALLOPS.

GRAVESEND TRACK, April 15.—The weather was perfect, but the track at Gravesend was in very bad condition for training operations this morning. It was impossible for any of the horses to show any speed. The following were the best workouts noted:
SAMUEL R.—Four furlongs in 0:54, galloping. A very good galloper.

Seen Better Days.

AMBERJACK—Four furlongs, 0:54, galloping. 100 pounds up. Has seen better days.
CARNAL—Four furlongs in 0:54, galloping. 100 pounds up. Has seen better days.

O'BRIEN HAS TWO BIG FIGHTS ON

BY JOHN POLLOCK.

After much dickerings a match has finally been arranged between "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien and Sam Berger, the former amateur heavy-weight champion of California. Berger gave his consent last night to fight O'Brien, and as Jimmy Coffroth, the late manager of San Francisco, has been waiting to hear from Berger in regard to the match this clinches the contest.

The men will try conclusions in a twenty-round bout at Woodward's Pavilion, in "Frisco, the second week in May. O'Brien is also matched to fight Bob F. Johnson for twenty rounds at the Tusculum A. C. of Easton, Pa., on the night of May 20.

Amateurs Were Out for Money.

Amateur boxing received a black eye in San Francisco when the boxing instructor of the Olympic A. C. under whose auspices the recent national amateur boxing championship tournament was held, presented a bill of $750, which he claimed was to be paid the contestants.

LAST GAMES OF CUE TOURNAMENT

Eleven in a series of twenty-one games scheduled for the world's championship emblem at 18-inch ballkline, two shots in, have been played in the concert hall at Madison Square Garden, the present week bringing together the stars of the big international tournament, who for the most part in earlier games have been given preliminary work in matching their supposedly superior ability against that of weaker players. In some of the games, however, surprises have been in store, and the latter have won.

BEELL TO MEET PIENING.

John Piening and Fred Beell will meet in a wrestling match at Grand Central Palace on April 21. Beell, 25, is a champion of the hardest tussles the American champion ever had, and as Fred is in the best of shape now, a good match should result. Harvey Parker will wrestle George Bohner on the same night for an hour.
